TWO STEEL STOCKS CONTINUE TO RISE

Advances Made on New York in the West Forty-seventh street sta-Market by Both Bethlehem and Crucible.

NEW YORK. Sept. 15,-Despite the waitne attitude of the market generally pending the outcome of negotiations for the big foreign loan, the upward sweep which made new high-water marks for Bethlehem Steel and Crucible Steel yesterday, continued today, and made still higher marks for these stocks. Bethlehem Steel opened at 350, which was a half point higher than the new high record yesterday of 349½, while Crucible sold up to 96¼, also adding a half point to yesterday's high record. Both stocks yielded slightly after the first hour, Bethlehem selling off to 347 and Crucible yielded slightly after the first hour, Bethlehem selling off to 347 and Crucible
to 95%, yesterday's closing.
As for several days past, trading was confined largely to the industrial group, and gains of from a fraction to 3 points were recorded by several of the war specialites. American Locomotive was particularly strong, opening with a % point pain, at 54, and selling up to 56%, with a net gain of 3% points. Allis Chalmers continued strong, recording a gain of 1% points, at 44%, and Westinghouse Electric was active and showed strength, selling up to 117. Studebaker showed strength at the opening, but sold off to 169. American Can was also active, and sold up to 60%, with a net gain of 1½ points.

The conner years showed strength on 4 61% gain of 1% points.

The copper group showed strength on the report that the securing by the allies of the loan now being negotiated allies of the loan now being negotiated would result in increased demand for copper, the only exception being Tennessee Copper, which, after opening at 56, and selling up to 57, fell back to 54.
Notably strong among the railers were Erie and Chesapeake and Ohio. Erie first opened with a half point gain at 51, and sold up to 51½, with a gain of a point, while the common stock registered a gain of % of a point, at 37%, Rock Island opened with a half-point gain at 22%, but sold off to 20%, with a loss of one point.

In ten days or so Dr. Champton will have completed his "vitality tests" upon the women who are setting out on the annual task of teaching almost 1,000,000 children.

Teaching is the hardest, most exacting public service in the world," said Dr. Crampton yesterday afternoon. "It time that the health and happiness of the teacher be taken into account, as well as the condition of the children she instructs."

Police Duty Too Much for Rookie

Satisfied To Return To Regular Job As Plasterer, Says

NEW YORK, Sept. 15,-The rookle policeman whom Mayor Mitchel and Commissioner Woods had seen perform his calisthenics with others of the class last Friday in front of City Hall, stood before Lieutenant Clarkin at the desk

tion. Said he:
"Say, boss, I'm through. This is not the life for me. I'm a good plasterer, strong and everything, but nix on this being a cop. No, siree. I can make more money and do less work as a plasterer, believe me. Why, I've been on the job three hours, and listen: Three street fights, climb up six flights of stairs in six tenements and be Willlam J. Bryan to scrapping wives and husbands; answer fool questions by the yard and watch a signal light. Look at me. I'm an athlete and all in. Now I me. And Lieutenant Clarkin looked at And Lieutenant Clarkin looked at Rookie Thomas J. Hanlon, twenty-four years old. It was last Saturday night and Hanlon had patrolled a post of three blocks on Tenth avenue near Fortieth street for three hours. The rookie went on: rockie went on:

"Anyhow, mother never did want me to stay out nights and I'm not strong for the night life myself."
So Hanion sent his resignation to Commissioner Woods, who accepted it.

Health Expert Urges Long Rests for Teachers

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.-Dr. C. Ward crampton, director of physical training in the department of education, has become a champion of the women teachers in the public schools of New York. They must have easier teaching periods or longer vacations, he believes. In ten days or so Dr. Champton will have completed his "vitality tests"

Oklahoma Mob Foiled

In Lynching Attempt

NOWATA, Okla., Sept. 15.—Disappointment greeted a mob which early today stormed the Nowata county jail intent upon lynching B. L. Harkins, charged with attacking a twelve-yearold girl. Having overpowered the sheriff and deputies, 300 men rushed the jail only to find an empty cell. Harkins had been taken away early yesterday dressed as a woman. He is believed to be in the Coffeyville, Kan., jail today.
